Hi Kara,

Confirming that this schedule works for the AUSA who will be handling the case, with one minor adjustment: November 10 is actually a federal holiday (Veterans Day), so I have modified the date for Defendants' response to the next day--November 13. Please see attached. Let me know if this looks good for filing.

I think that will work for us, but I will need to check in with the AUSA who will be handling this. What were you thinking for a hearing date?

Assuming this will work, I will prepare a stipulation and send it over tomorrow morning.

Thanks for your message, Kara.

November 3 simply isn't enough time for new counsel to prepare the opposition. As a compromise position, I would propose November 10 for the PI motion, with your reply due on November 17. As I mentioned in our call yesterday, I do not think that briefing of the class cert motion is warranted/necessary at this time and that there is no reason that the stay should be lifted as to that motion. I propose that it be part of the meet and confer leading up to the December 4 Case Management Statement.

Please let me know if this works for you, and we can prepare a stipulation.

Thanks,

Hi Pam,

On the call yesterday you proposed the Parties agree to a response deadline of November 17 for the PI motion, at which point a response would actually be filed, and asked the parties agree that the current stay to December 18, 2023 otherwise applies. We have conferred and are open to discussion a response date of November 3rd for the PI and class cert motion with our reply due the following Friday November 10th. As I mentioned I am out of the office on a monitoring tour today and have copied my co-counsel who are available to follow-up about this as needed.

Best,

Kara

Hi Kara,

Thanks for your markup. I propose that we split the difference between Oct. 4 and Oct. 31 and set the response date for October 14. This moves the briefing closer to your proposed schedule but provides a little more time so that we may possibly be able to avoid going back to the Court to ask for more time.

Given the disagreement about whether the stay applies, I think the best approach is to acknowledge the order and simply state that we disagree about its applicability.

Please let me know if this looks good to file. I am happy to discuss this afternoon or tomorrow.
